BOOK REVIEW

THE LAW OF CONTRACT IN MALAYSIA AND SINGAPORE: CASES AND COMMENTARY

by Visu Sinnadurai

[Kuala Lumpur: Oxford University Press, 1979. 764 pp]

The author, Visu Sinnadurai, is an Associate Professor, in the Faculty of Law, University of Malaya. Having taught at the University for number of years, the author has acquired a deep insight into the subject which he employs gainfully in presenting his comments on cases decided by courts in Malaysia, Singapore and elsewhere. The author is forthright in his exposition when he disagrees from the decision in a particular case. The book is divided into number of Chapters. Each Chapter is further sub-divided into three parts, introduction, cases, notes and comments which has considerably enhanced the value of the book as one is introduced to the subject in the first instance followed by cases decided by courts in Malaysia and Singapore though occasionally supplementing by referring to select Indian cases which is but natural as the Malaysian Contract Act, for the most part, is in para materia with Indian Contract Act, 1872. Perhaps the best part of the book is 'notes and comments' which the author handles very deftly. The bibliography at the end of each chapter adds to the value of the book which is a pioneering effort in this field. The style is lucid and readable throughout. The book is of immense benefit to students and practitioners alike.

The popularity of the book can be judged from the fact that the first edition was sold out in the very first year of its publication in 1979 and the second impression had to be printed in 1980.

On page 28, the author correctly states the Malaysian Law when he says "An acceptance may be revoked at any time before the communication of acceptance is complete as against the acceptor This will, therefore, mean that the acceptor can revoke his acceptance before it comes to the knowledge of
