

NOTES ON CONTRIBUTORS

Akhtar MIRZA is a recent graduate in English Literature from Forman Christian College (A Chartered University). He is a writer, translator, independent researcher, and director based in Lahore, Pakistan.

h.akhtarmirza@gmail.com

Avijit DAS, a UGC Senior Research Fellow, is presently pursuing his PhD in the field of post 9/11 South Asian Literature at the Department of Humanities in NIT Durgapur, India. He has presented papers in national and international conferences, and got two papers published in the Scopus indexed journals.

20avijitdas@gmail.com

Chithira JAMES is a Research Scholar (English) at the National Institute of Technology, Calicut, India. She studies the politicisation of food and the representation of subaltern food in contemporary Malayalam films. Her research interests include food studies, critical caste studies, film studies, and ecocriticism.

chithira_p190114ms@nitc.ac.in Deblina ROUT is a PhD candidate at IIT Hyderabad, India. Her research focuses on contemporary Indian graphic narratives. She has presented at several conferences, and her work has been published in journals such as Media Watch (SAGE), as book chapters in conference proceedings, and in a Routledge essay collection.

deblinarout@gmail.com

Enakshi SAMARAWICKRAMA is an Assistant Professor in the School of English at the University of Nottingham Malaysia. She is interested in researching portrayals of gender in crime fiction, the power dynamics at play between femininities and masculinities and the concepts of female victimhood, violence, and agency.

kaazesk@nottingham.edu.my Farzana AKHTER is an Associate Professor of English at East West University in Dhaka, Bangladesh. She holds a Ph.D. in English from the University of Arkansas, U.S.A. She is also the Assistant Editor of the East West Journal of Humanities. Her recent works have appeared in the Journal of Intercultural Studies, South Central Review, and English Studies.

farzana@ewubd.edu

FOONG Soon Seng is currently the Deputy Dean (R & D and Postgraduate Programmes) and an Assistant Professor in the Department of Languages and Linguistics, Universiti Tunku Abdul Rahman (Kampar Campus), Malaysia. He obtained his PhD in English Literature from University of Malaya. His research interests include Feminist Writings (i.e., Women's Studies, Ecofeminist Studies), Colonial & Post-Colonial Literature, and Malaysian Literature in English.

ssfoong@utar.edu.my

Goutam KARMAKAR is an NRF Postdoctoral Fellow in the Faculty of Education at the University of the Western Cape, South Africa. He is one of the editors of the Routledge book series on South Asian literature. His areas of research are South Asian literature and culture, women and gender studies, postcolonial studies, and ecological studies. His forthcoming and recently published edited volumes are Nation and Narration: Hindi Cinema and the Making and Remaking of National Consciousness (Routledge, forthcoming), Modernist Transitions: Cultural Encounters between British and Bangla Modernist Fiction from 1910s to 1950s (Bloomsbury, forthcoming), Narratives of Trauma in South Asian Literature (Routledge, 2022), The City Speaks: Urban Spaces in Indian Literature (Routledge, 2022), and Religion in South Asian Anglophone Literature: Traversing Resistance, Margins and Extremism (Routledge, 2021). He has also published articles in over a dozen academic journals.

goutamkrmkr@gmail.com

Haadiyah CHISTI is a research scholar at the Department of English, Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University. She has presented papers at various national and international conferences. Moreover, research papers and book chapters have also been contributed to reputed journals and publishing houses.

haadiyahchishti99@gmail.com

Ivan LING is currently doing his MA in English Literature at the English Department of the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Universiti Malaya. He graduated with a degree in English from the University of Nottingham Malaysia, and was Co-Editor in Chief of the university's student-led literary magazine, Particle. He was also a Senior Content Writer for the university's independent magazine, Ignite, specializing in writing for the music section. He owns a blog called Once Every Week, where he posts works of poetry, articles, and blogs.

ivanlingcc@gmail.com

Jhilam CHATTARAJ is an academic and poet based in Hyderabad, India. She works at RBVRR Women's College. Noise Cancellation is her latest collection of poems. Her works have appeared at Calyx, Room, Colorado Review, Ariel and World Literature Today among others.

c.jhilam1984@gmail.com

Madhurima SEN is a DPhil candidate at the Faculty of English, University of Oxford. The working title of her doctoral thesis is "Memory, Nation-Building and 1971 Bangladesh War Literature". Previously, she completed her MPhil from the University of Delhi and her Master's and Bachelor's degrees from Miranda House.

madhurima.sen@hertford.ox.ac.uk

Malachi Edwin VETHAMANI is a poet, writer, editor, critic, bibliographer and Emeritus Professor at University of Nottingham. His publications include: Rambutan Kisses (2022), The Seven O'clock Tree (2022) and Love and Loss (2022), Coitus Interruptus and Other Stories (2018), Life Happens (2017) and Complicated Lives (2016). His edited volumes of Malaysian writings in English include: In-Sights: Malaysian Poems (2004), Malchin Testament: Malaysian Poems (2018) and Ronggeng-Ronggeng: Malaysian Short Stories (2020), Malaysian Millennial Voices (2021), and The Year of the Rat and Other Poems (2022). In 2015, he published A Bibliography of Malaysian Literature in English.

Malachi.Vethamani@nottingham.edu.my Meena SHARMA is an Assistant Professor of English, Dibrugarh University, Assam, India. Her areas of interest are South Asian Literature, Women and Gender Studies, Postcolonial Studies, Shakespeare Studies.

203meenasharma@gmail.com

Navin SHARMA is a UGC-Senior Research Fellow (PhD) and Teaching Assistant of English in the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology Patna. For his PhD dissertation, he is working on the intersections between law and Hindi films.

navins51@gmail.com

Nilanjan CHAKRABORTY is currently working as an Assistant Professor in English at Panchla Mahavidyalaya, affiliated to the University of Calcutta, and is a Visiting faculty member in the PG Department of English, Women's College, Calcutta. His research interests are mainly centred on Postcolonial literature and Theory and contemporary literary and cultural theory.

nilanjan.chakraborty.1985@gmail.com

Nukhbah Taj LANGAH is the senior lecturer at the Department of English, University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. She obtained her PhD from University of Leeds, UK in 2008. She started teaching at Forman Christian College University, Lahore (Pakistan) in 2009 while also fulfilling key administrative roles within the domain of Humanities. Her doctoral research is published as a monograph entitled, Poetry as Resistance: Islam and Ethnicity in Postcolonial Pakistan (Routledge, 2011). She did her post-doc from Center of South Asia Studies (Le Centre d'Études de l'Inde et de l'Asie du Sud), Paris in 2016-17. As Charles Wallace Fellow (2018) at School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS), University of London, she conducted a project focused on Siraiki Language speakers in Britain: An Ethnographic Study. Her first edited volume focused on Literary and non-Literary Responses towards 9/11 (Routledge, 2019); she also co-edited two volumes entitled, Film, Media, and Representation in Postcolonial South Asia (Routledge 2021) and Narratives of Loss and Longing: Literary developments in Post-colonial South Asia with Dr. Roshni Sengupta (School of Modern Media UPES, Dehradun, India).

nukhbahtajlangah@gmail.com

Payel PAL is an Assistant Professor of English at the LNM Institute of Information Technology, Jaipur. Her current research areas include South Asian studies, Women and Gender studies, cultural studies, and Film studies. She is one of the editors of the Routledge book series on South Asian literature, and has also published articles in over a dozen academic journals.

payel65@gmail.com

Priyanka TRIPATHI is an Associate Professor of English and Head, Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Indian Institute of Technology Patna (India). She works in the areas of Gender Studies, South Asian Fiction, GeoHumanities and Graphic Novels.

priyankatripathi@iitp.ac.in Reju George MATHEW is an Assistant Professor (English) at the National Institute of Technology Calicut, India. His PhD research dealt with Dalit religious conversions, caste, and modernity in Kerala. His research interests include religious studies, food studies, postcolonial studies, film studies, colonial modernity, Dalit Christianity, and identity formations.

rejugm@nitc.ac.in

Romina RASHID is the Head of the Department of English, at Baba Ghulam Shah Badshah University. She has presented papers at national and international conferences and participated in workshops, webinars, and faculty development programmes. Moreover, research papers and book chapters have been contributed to various reputed Journals and Publishing houses. Her research interests include Postcolonial Studies, Conflict studies, and Gender Studies. Furthermore, she has edited four books and guided Ph.D. and MPhil scholars.

rominarashid@bgsbu.ac.in Sanghamitra DALAL is a Senior Lecturer at the College of Creative Arts, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Selangor, Malaysia. She completed a PhD in postcolonial diasporic literature at Monash University, Melbourne, Australia, and had taught in Goethe University, Frankfurt, Germany, and in different secondary and tertiary academic institutions in India. Her research interests include postcolonial migration and diasporic literatures, with special interest in South and Southeast Asian literatures in English; transnational and transcultural literatures and cultures; life writing and food writing. She has published articles in WoS and Scopus indexed journals and book chapters with Routledge and Palgrave Macmillan.

sanghamitra@uitm.edu.my

Shri Krishan RAI is an Associate Professor at the Department of Humanities at NIT Durgapur, India. He has delivered talks at the Universities of Oxford, La Laguna, and Allahabad. He has three books and a score of research papers in reputed national and international journals.

srikrishanrai4@gmail.com

Yasir Ali KHAN (Sarmad) is an MPhil student at Forman Christian College (A Chartered University), Lahore, and is a translation enthusiast; engaged in translations to/from English, Urdu, Pashto, and Persian. Sarmad's translated works/articles have been published in the pioneering Pashto magazine, Pakhtoon, and also by Mafkoora Research & Development Centre, Peshawar.

write4sarmad@gmail.com

ZAINOR Izat Zainal is senior lecturer at Universiti Putra Malaysia, where she teaches Malaysian literature in English, creative writing, and miscellaneous other subjects related to world literature. Currently, she is Vice President of the Association for the Study of Literature and Environment ASEAN (ASLE-ASEAN) and Co-Chief Editor of Journal of Southeast Asian Ecocriticism. Her research interests include postcolonial ecocriticism and teaching literature in the Malaysian ESL context. She has been actively involved in producing student play productions in Universiti Putra Malaysia such as Atomic Jaya (2017), Toast! (2019) and The Girl and The Ghost (2023).

zainor@upm.edu.my